Hello J. Cresswell Stuart Family! I hope you had a wonderful and peaceful Sunday! It is a beautiful day.

We are moving along nicely as we journey forward toward the end of a school year. Thank you to all of our Kindergarten Parents for joining us at the Black History Winter Concert. The kindergarten scholars were wonderful as they sang songs, recited challenging poems, and performed an amazing dance. A special thank you to Ms. Fabian, Music Director/Teacher for putting on such a great show!

Parents, we will be celebrating Read Across America on March 2, 2023. This special time is set aside to encourage scholars to read, appreciate books, and promote literacy. Please consider the following ways you can celebrate Read Across America at home:

- Monday: Read a book that celebrates females for Women's History Month.
- Tuesday: Read a funny book that makes your child laugh.
- Wednesday: Read a Caldecott Award Book to your child.
- Thursday: Read a Coretta Scott King Award Book to your child.
- Friday: Read Corey Hates Covid to your child.

Parents, feel free to speak with your child's teacher if you would like to come in to read to the class during Read Across America week. Thank you for your patience as we work to address issues with congestion in the parking lot. Please drive safely in the parking lot and please show the highest level of respect to each other. We are trying to get our lot back in order. Parents, we need your help. We look forward to seeing our scholars tomorrow on time and ready to learn! Great things are happening at J. Cresswell Stuart ECDC.
